

Salem Harvest

'To feed hungry families by harvesting food that would go to waste'

Salem Harvest Cookbook Advertising Opportunities

Thank you for purchasing advertising space in the Salem Harvest Cookbook. Your support will help keep fresh, healthy produce moving from fields to hungry families throughout Marion and Polk counties. This cookbook will consist of recipes from Salem Harvest volunteers, community members and local area chefs that feature locally grown produce. We hope it will become the go-to book for finding both new and time tested recipes using Willamette Valley produce.
